Re: Zero-In Technology, LLC v. Burris Company, Inc.
 (S.D.N.Y. 16-cv-00756-JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

We represent Plaintiff Zero-In Technology, LLC (“Plaintiff”) in this action. Pursuant to Rule 1.E. of Your Honor’s Individual Practices, we write to respectfully request a brief thirty (30) day adjournment of the pretrial conference.

The parties have reached a settlement in principal, and they are currently finalizing the terms of a settlement agreement. An extension of the initial pretrial conference will allow the parties to do so without incurring additional litigation costs.

The current date for the pretrial conference is May 23, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to the Notice of Court Conference, dated May 16, 2016 (Dkt. 9). This is the first request for an adjournment of the pretrial conference. There are no other scheduled dates that will be affected by this request. Defendant consents to this request for an adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,
